

THE BLEED AND THE BEES

Tucked into the village of Selo, a long beautiful walk or a short drive from Bled, this fascinating countryside buzzing with fans of the apicultural arts. Local beekeeper has built an apiary (freestanding house of beehives) and teaches visitors all about his very Slovenian form of agriculture. Beekeeper will demonstrate how you can hold your hand within inches of the buzzing hive without getting stung, thanks to the peaceful nature of the indigenous Carnolian bee. Explore one of Slovenia's' favourite pastimes - beekeeping. Try golden glowy honey products and paint unique beehive panels.
