

GEMS OF PORTUGAL – A SHARED SECRET

An inviting stretch of water lying 2 hours driving from Lisbon. This huge reservoir provides plenty of fun for those who love the outdoor life, and a passion for water sports. Nestling between rolling banks of pine and eucalyptus forests, the shimmering freshwater lake is a magnet for water-skiers and canoeists, although windsurfers might sometimes find a decent breeze wanting. Boating and fishing are also favorite leisure alternatives.

Don't miss:

- A visit to the city of Tomar, with the magnificent Convent of Christ, founded in the 12th century by the Grand Master of the Templars, later inscribed on UNESCO's World Heritage list.
- Castelo de Almourol, a magical fortress, dramatically set on a marble-sized island in the Tagus River.
