

United Arab Emirates

Geography:

The United Arab Emirates is an Arabian Peninsula nation settled mainly along the Persian (Arabian) Gulf. The country is a federation of 7 Emirates (Abu Dhabi, Dubai, Sharjah, Ajman, Umm Al Quwain, Ras Al Khaimah and Fujairah).

Climate:

Predominantly arid.

Summer with temperatures reaching 45 °C in the hot season, from May to September.

Winter: December – March, the climate is pleasant with temperatures ranging from 13°C to 30°C

Population:

The UAE's population was 9.2 million as of 2016, of which 1.4 million are Emirati citizens and 7.8 million are expatriates.

Language:

Arabic is the official language. Although English is widely spoken.

Religion:

Islam is the official state religion of the UAE.

Heritage & Culture:

Emirati culture is based on Arabian culture and has been heavily influenced by Persian culture. Arabian and Persian inspired architecture is part of the expression of the local Emirati identity.

Emirati clothing is an important part of the history and heritage of the UAE and is a source of pride. Men in the UAE wear a white cloak 'kandura' which is also called a 'dishdash' or a 'Thawb' in other GCC countries. The women in UAE wear a long flowing black gown known as the 'abaya.'

DINNER AT TEAN – JUMEIRAH SAADIYAT ISLAND (Signature Restaurant)

Grilled spiced meats and seafood dishes are cooked the traditional Levantine way.

The foundation of Chef Bayoumi's culinary career is his training as a luxury pastry chef. His mastery of Arabic pastries caught the attention of Egypt's celebrity Chef Osama El-Sayed, who invited him to spend two years on his cooking show on Dubai TV. In 2008, Bayoumi returned to where he was most happy: in the kitchen serving guests. He continued to develop a repertoire of Arabic and Levantine dishes, and was taught how to fuse them with international cuisines by American celebrity chef Rick Gonzalez. In 2018, he joined Jumeirah at Saadiyat Island Resort, where he designed a menu for Tean that is the culmination of years of experience integrating flavours from across the Middle East.
